

The International Language Institute of Massachusetts
ACADEMIC PATHWAYS PROGRAM

International LANGUAGE
Institute of Massachusetts

ACADEMIC

Pathway Partners

www.ili.edu

ACADEMIC PATHWAYS PROGRAM

The International Language Institute has partnerships with area colleges and universities. Qualified students are granted conditional acceptance and are exempt from taking the TOEFL exam before their program of study. ILI's partners offer a variety of programs from associates degrees to graduate degrees.

CONTENTS

Bay Path College	4
Elms College	5
Greenfield Community College	6
SIT Graduate Institute	7
Springfield College	8
Western New England University	9
Westfield State University	10

The International Language Institute of Massachusetts

17-25 New South Street
Northampton, MA 01060

PHONE 413.586.7569

FAX 413.586.8927

EMAIL info@ili.edu

WEBSITE www.ili.edu

Bay Path College

Bay Path College is a private women's college that is located in Longmeadow, Massachusetts. With more than 30 majors, Bay Path College is a leader in the areas of Accounting, Biology and Biotechnology, Psychology, American Legal Studies, and Business. Its beautiful campus fosters a warm and creative community of women scholars in the undergraduate program while graduate degrees are offered to both men and women, online and on campus.

Location	Suburban community of Longmeadow, Massachusetts
Student population (number and gender)	1,973 total students. Our undergraduate programs are for women only. Our graduate programs are for men and women only.
Student/staff ratio	17:1
Enrollment dates	September and January start dates. We offer rolling admissions.
Ranking	Ranked in the Top Tier for Comprehensive Colleges in the North by US News and World Reports
Accreditation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• New England Association of Schools and Colleges• Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education of the American Occupational Therapy Association• American Bar Association
Most popular programs	Business, Education, Biology, Legal Studies, Psychology, Forensic Science
Campus life	Over 30 different clubs and activities and 7 NCAA Division III Sports teams
Residential options	Three residence halls available. Students are required to live on campus for their first two years
Typical annual total tuition and fees	Tuition $27,045 Room and board $10,950 Health insurance approximately $1,600 Books and expenses $1,000 Approximate total $42,000 Partial scholarships are available for international students that range from $5,000 to $14,000 per year and are awarded based on academic achievement.

A private, Catholic college with 1,000 full-time undergraduate students and 450 part-time and graduate students. The campus is a friendly community where faculty and students enjoy close relationships and opportunities to work together. Enjoy a welcoming, safe, and stimulating academic environment. Elms College offers a liberal arts curriculum founded in 1928 by the Sisters of St. Joseph. Some of our most popular fields of study include business (accounting, marketing, and management), education, social work and history. Elms College has a tradition of educating reflective, principled, and creative learners. Elms College values and welcomes students from around the world.

Location	Chicopee, Massachusetts
Student population (number and gender)	1,000 undergraduates, 250 graduate/part-time students
Student/staff ratio	15:1 Student to Faculty ratio
Enrollment dates	September 7, 2011 – fall semester January 18, 2012 – spring semester
Ranking	Co-educational Catholic liberal arts college
Accreditation	New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC)
Most popular programs	1. Business (accounting, marketing, and management) 2. Social Work 3. Education
Campus life	Beautiful, safe, supportive campus with a world of opportunities for learning.
Residential options	Most international students choose to live in campus housing. Most rooms are for two students, although some singles are available for an additional cost.
Typical annual total tuition and fees	Undergraduate tuition: $24,788 Undergraduate room/meals: $9,446 Fees: $1,222 * International Students are considered for merit-based academic financial awards.

GCC is a two-year Community College in Greenfield, Massachusetts. GCC is the smallest of the 15 community colleges in the Massachusetts higher education system, known for the caring and supportive attitude of the faculty and staff. GCC works closely with bachelor degree granting colleges of the Massachusetts public higher education system, including the University of Massachusetts, and with private colleges and universities, which enables GCC to offer diverse transfer opportunities to its students.

Location	Greenfield, Massachusetts
Student population	Approximately 2500 credit earning students (Coed)
Student/staff ratio	14:1
Enrollment Dates	Rolling and open admission with start dates in September and January.
Accreditation	NEASC
Most popular programs	Nursing, Renewable Energy, Liberal Studies-transfer options, Criminal Justice, and Business Administration
Campus life	There are campus activities such as clubs and organizations, student government, lecture series, and entertainment
Residential options	GCC is a commuter campus. Housing is not available through the institution, though the Office of Student Activities maintains a listing of rentals in the area.
Typical annual total tuition and fees	For international students: $13,000 plus transportation, housing, meals, and health insurance.

SIT Graduate Institute equips students with theoretical knowledge, field experience, and professional skills. Programs are based on an experiential learning model and a commitment to social justice and intercultural communication.

SIT offers Master of Arts degree programs in the following on its campuses in Brattleboro, Vermont and Washington, DC.

- Conflict Transformation
- International Education
- Sustainable Development
- Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)
- Service, Leadership and Management

Location	Brattleboro, VT and Washington, DC
Student population	approximately 200 (male and female)
Student/staff ratio	6:1
Enrollment dates	September, January, and June
Accreditation	New England Association of Schools and Colleges, NEASC
Most popular programs	Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), International Education, Conflict Transformation, Sustainable Development, and Intercultural Service, Leadership, and Management
Campus life	SIT Graduate Institute's supportive, diverse, and community-focused learning and living environment is designed to help all students achieve their academic potential. Approximately 25 percent of SIT's student body is international students, who come from more than 30 countries. Virtually all SIT graduate students have experienced living in a culture other than their own. The Office of Campus Life provides co-curricular support through a wide range of services and activities, including: Counseling Services, Disability Support Services, International Student and Scholar Services, Student Activities and Leadership opportunities For more information, visit http://www.sit.edu/graduate/student-life-resources.htm.
Residential options	On-campus housing is available.
Typical annual total tuition and fees	Approximately $35,000 per year, depending on program.

Springfield College opened its doors in 1885 and has an international reputation as a pioneer in teaching and scholarship related to physical education, wellness, and the training of YMCA executives. Today, with an undergraduate and graduate student body of more than 5,000, Springfield College is proud of its reputation in these fields and throughout the human-helping professions.

Location	Springfield, MA
Student population	2300 Undergraduate, 1800 Graduate
Student/staff ratio	13:1
Enrollment dates	September / January
Ranking	Top tier “best universities—masters—North Region”
Accreditation	NEASC
Most popular programs	Physical Education, Exercise Science, Sport Management, Education, Allied Health, Counseling, Art Therapy, YMCA Professional Studies, Emergency Medical Services Management
Campus life	International Center, Academic Support Center, NCAA DIII Athletics, dozens of clubs and activities, state of the art wellness, computer, laboratory facilities
Residential options	Residential campus—90%+ live on campus
Typical annual total tuition and fees	$40,000

Western New England University (WNE) is a private, independent, coeducational university founded in 1919. It serves approximately 4,000 students on its main campus is located in Springfield, Massachusetts. Undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs are offered through the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business, Engineering, Pharmacy and the School of Law.

Location	Springfield, MA
Student population (number and gender)	2,500 undergraduate, 3,650 total 60% male and 40% female, 59% of students come from out of state
Student/staff ratio	15:1
Enrollment dates	Undergraduate – August and January Graduate – Sept., Jan, April, and July
Ranking	Ranked among the top tier in the north regions “Best Universities – Master’s category. The College has also been featured in the first edition of the Colleges of Distinction guidebook and named a “Hidden Gem” by the Washington Post.
Accreditation	New England Association of Schools and Colleges, AACSB International, ABET, ABA, Council on Social Work Education
Most popular programs	Business, Sport Management, Engineering, Criminal Justice, Communication
Campus life	79% of students live on campus, over 60 clubs and organizations and 19 Division III teams
Residential options	Undergraduate housing available in traditional housing, apartment style and townhouses. Limited graduate housing. www.wnec.edu/residencelife
Typical annual total tuition and fees	Undergraduate - $41,148 ($42,398 for Engineering) Graduate – vary by program, check website

Located 90 miles west of Boston in the foothills of the Berkshire Mountains, Westfield State is a mid-sized, public liberal arts university with 5500 students, 4500 of whom are undergraduates. Founded in 1838 by Horace Mann, Westfield State is committed to providing students with a learning experience built on an education without barrier to race, creed or economic status. This spirit of innovative thinking and social responsibility is forged in a curriculum of liberal arts and professional studies that creates a vital community of engaged learners who become confident, capable individuals prepared for leadership and service to society.

Location	Westfield, Massachusetts,
Student population	4,500 full-time undergraduate students
Student/staff ratio	18:1
Enrollment dates	September & January
Accreditation	Accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges
Most popular programs	Business Management, Aviation Management, Criminal Justice, Education, and Communications
Campus life	Most residential state college in Massachusetts. Over 60 clubs and organizations to join.
Residential options	On-campus residency or Commuter
Typical annual total tuition and fees	$16,832 (in-state tuition, fees, & health insurance) $22,912 (out-of-state tuition, fees, room, board, & health insurance)