

Colleges within 20 miles of International Language Institute

American International College <http://www.aic.edu/>

AIC is a private, coeducational, four-year comprehensive institution located in the geographic center of Springfield, Massachusetts. Liberal Arts serves as the core in all the academic offerings.

Amherst College <https://www.amherst.edu/>

Amherst College is a private liberal arts college in Amherst, Massachusetts, USA. Founded in 1821, it is the third oldest college in Massachusetts, and has been coeducational since 1975.

Bay Path College - <http://www.baypath.edu/>

Bay Path College is a private women's college that is located in Longmeadow, Massachusetts. It was founded in 1897. Men are accepted in the graduate programs.

Elms College <http://www.elms.edu/>

Elms College, formally known as the College of Our Lady of the Elms, is a four-year, private, liberal arts, Catholic college located in Chicopee, Massachusetts, about two miles north of downtown Springfield.

Greenfield Community College - <http://www.gcc.mass.edu/>

Greenfield Community College is a two-year Community College in Greenfield, Massachusetts. It was founded in 1962, currently has an annual enrollment of 3,000, is regionally known for its fantastic art program, its friendly small-town atmosphere and its beautiful setting amidst picturesque old farmland at the foot of Greenfield Mountain. Greenfield Community college grants conditional acceptance to students that have attended ILLI and are recommended for study at GCC. In addition, students who finish at level 9 of the Intensive English Program do not need to take the TOEFL test.

Hampshire College - <http://www.hampshire.edu/>

Hampshire College is a private liberal arts college located in Amherst, Massachusetts. It was founded in 1970 as an experiment in alternative education, to be in association with four other colleges in the Pioneer Valley. The College is widely known for its alternative curriculum, its focus on portfolios rather than distribution requirements, and its reliance on narrative evaluations instead of grades and GPAs. It is known particularly for facilitating the study of film, theater, and the visual arts.

Holyoke Community College - <http://www.hcc.edu/>

Holyoke Community College (HCC) is a state-funded public two-year community college located in Holyoke, Massachusetts. It offers associate degrees as well as a transfer program for students to earn credits for transfer to other colleges.

Mount Holyoke College - <http://www.mtholyoke.edu/>

Mount Holyoke College is a highly selective liberal arts women's college in South Hadley, Massachusetts and is the oldest continuing institution of higher education for women in the world.

Smith College - <http://www.smith.edu/>

Smith College is a private, independent women's liberal arts college located in Northampton, Massachusetts.

Springfield College - <http://www.spfldcol.edu/>

Springfield College is a private, coeducational institution that concentrates on the allied health sciences, human and social services, sports movement activities, and the arts and sciences. The stated mission of Springfield College is to educate students in spirit, mind, and body for leadership in service to humanity — a concept defined by the school as "Humanics". Undergraduate and graduate programs reflect its distinctive Humanics philosophy.

Springfield Technical Community College - <http://www.stcc.edu/>

STCC remains one of the most diverse campuses in the state college system of Massachusetts and offers the associate degree in over 30 programs and dozens of certificate/completion programs

University of Massachusetts Amherst - <http://www.umass.edu/>

The University of Massachusetts Amherst offers over 90 undergraduate and 65 graduate areas of study.

Western New England College - <http://www.wnec.edu/>

Western New England College (WNEC) is a private, independent, coeducational college founded in 1919. Located on a classical 215-acre suburban campus in Springfield, Massachusetts, it serves approximately 4,000 students on its main campus and at four satellite sites within Massachusetts. Undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs are offered through the Schools of Arts and Sciences, Business, Engineering, and Law. The College is seeking approval to launch a new School of Pharmacy in 2011.

Westfield State College - <http://www.wsc.mass.edu/>

Westfield State College at 577 Western Avenue, in Westfield, is a small liberal arts college. Westfield State College was the first coeducational normal school in the United States. Since the 1970's, the school has expanded its program to include criminal justice, communication, regional planning, political science, chemistry, theatre arts, and other programs.